Brands: Forrest Machinery Forrest Machine Spire Bespoke Moulding $299.00 If you need bespoke moulds for a business project (e.g., badge) - submit your request to customer service: sales@spire.com.au A distinctive, modern look with a unique and engaging feel The design Spire's philosophy is that your business deserves to stand out in a crowd. In that light, the shape and colour of your company logo has to look awesome - while not only matching but also complementing your design. A modern, fun design that works well in any context There are plenty of ways to spice up your look, and we have a series of guidelines and tips for you to follow to help achieve this. Our design team is always open to feedback, so tell them your ideas and they'll keep it in mind while helping you to create the perfect identity for your brand. Shape There are many ways to create your own logo, and one of the most effective is to use shape. We've created a simple guide to help you to choose the most appropriate shape for your design. Colour Your logo should communicate your brand, so it's important to understand your brand's colour themes and stick with them. In addition to being on-brand and memorable, logos also need to be unique, simple and impactful. A lot of logos today fail on this count - so we've put together a comprehensive guide to logo design that explains why you should be striving for these characteristics. The typeface On top of everything else, your logo needs to be legible. A poor quality typeface can kill your design, so if you don't have the experience or expertise to create your own unique typeface, let us help you choose one that will make your branding as memorable as possible. Color Your logo's colour scheme is one of the most powerful tools in your branding arsenal. The way you use colour to communicate your brand identity is one of the main reasons why customers choose to use your brand. The six colours When creating your logo, we recommend that you stick to six colours. Why? Because these colours
